

Brand new direct services

It's important for us to know that we can take you to where you want to go (and get you back again!), so we've introduced a number of new routes:

New Lincoln to London King's Cross direct service

Now you no longer have to change trains when travelling between Lincoln and London. On weekdays our new southbound service departs Lincoln at 07.20 and arrives into London King's Cross at 09.28, with the northbound service departing London at 19.06, and arriving into Lincoln at 21.01

On Saturdays there is a direct southbound service departing Lincoln at 09.30, arriving into London at 11.26. with the northbound service departing London at 18.08 and arriving into Lincoln at 20.03.

For those customers who are making an extra special weekend of it and staying over, there is also a direct northbound service from London King's Cross to Lincoln on Sundays, departing at 19.08 arriving at 21.03.

New London King's Cross to Harrogate direct service

This is the first direct London King's Cross to Harrogate service in 20 years. On Weekdays this new northbound service departs from London King's Cross at 17.33 and arrives into Harrogate at 20.29. The direct southbound service will continue to depart from Harrogate at 07.28 and now arrives into London King's Cross at 10.38.

On Saturdays, our new direct northbound service will depart from London King's Cross at 17.35 and arrive into Harrogate at 20.29, with the southbound morning service now departing Harrogate at 08.13 and arriving into King's Cross at 11.33.

On Sunday two new direct services have been introduced, both timed in the late afternoon. The northbound service will depart London King's Cross at 18.05 and arrive into Harrogate at 21.07 whilst the southbound service will depart Harrogate at 17.05 and arrive into London King's Cross at 20.12.